How to play

1. Split into two parties (teams) Democrats vs. Republicans.¹
2. Shuffle each deck and place them on a table in separate piles.
3. The person who voted in the earliest presidential election goes first. If there is a tie, highest dice role wins.

¹ If you have an odd number of players, players on the smaller team get an extra alternating turn between them per round.

Gameplay

Each player's turn follows the below steps:

1. A member from the opposing team draws a card from the #POSTS Deck and reads it out loud.

" They had no definitive proof against Tom Brady or #patriots. If Hillary doesn't have to produce emails, why should Tom? Very unfair! "

- Donald J. Trump 5/11/15

REAL ✓

Vs

"Absolutely disgraceful! These players and their fans should be ashamed! If the NFL doesn't act now, I WILL! SAD!!! "

- Donald J. Trump 9/12/16

FAKE NEWS ✗

2. The person whose turn it is must declare out loud whether it is a "Real" social media post from Donald Trump or "Fake News".
3. The #POSTS card is placed in the discard pile.
4. If you answer incorrectly, roll one die.
5. If you answered correctly, roll two dice and choose which die to use.
6. The opposing team will draw and read one card out loud from the PLAY Deck determined by the dice roll.
