A player may use both of their own two-hole cards, only one, or none at all, to form a final five-card hand.

If the five community cards form the player's best hand, then the player is said to be playing the board.

Hands for Crazy pineapple games.

Crazy Pineapple Poker is almost identical to Texas Hold'em.

Now, the changes begin.

In Crazy Pineapple Poker, instead of being dealt 2-hole cards as in Texas Hold'em, each player gets 3-hole cards to begin.

Before dealing a turn card and river card.

All players in start a poker game chooses 1 card from their 3-hole cards to discard.

So, everyone now only has the regular 2-hole cards just like in Texas Hold'em again.
